Your guide to fundraising for the NeuroSurgical Research Foundation

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

We acknowledge the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples as the first inhabitants of this nation and the traditional custodians of the lands where we live, learn and work.

We pay respects to all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Elders past, present and emerging from all nations across this country

WHO WE ARE

The Neurosurgical Research Foundation Inc. (NRF) was formed in 1963 and was the first of its kind in Australia.

Our objective is directed towards funding research into the cause, diagnosis, prevention and treatment of disease, injuries or malfunction of the brain, spine and nerves.

FUNDRAISING GUIDELINES

To meet requirements, you will need to register your fundraiser with us. Reach out to info@nrf.com.au to inquire today and we'll provide the supportive resources to make your fundraising event/activity a huge success!

Your Responsibilities:

As the fundraiser, you are responsible for the planning and management of the activity, events, finances, prizes, ticket sales and services required to run your fundraiser.

Any permits, licenses and insurance required are your sole responsibility to obtain. Unsure what you need? No stress! Reach out to our team and we can help.

Fundraising can be incredibly rewarding! However, before you jump in, here are some important things to keep in mind.

Once your fundraiser is wrapped up you can deposit the funds using one of these methods:

Direct transfer:

NeuroSurgical Research Foundation Inc

BSB 105 900

No 966293400

Online: If you're using a credit or debit card you can transfer funds to us using our secure online donation portal at nrf.com.au/donate

Remittance: Email info@nrf.com.au with your transfer details so we can issue a tax deductible receipt.

TOGETHER, WE CAN.

When we fund innovation, we create hope for a healthier, better tomorrow.
